Hutchinson, John, 1615-1664.

A narrative of the imprisonment and usage of Col. John Hutchinson, of Outhorpe, in the county of Nottingham, esq. now close prisoner in the Tower of London. Written by himself, on the sixth of April, 1664; having then received information that he was to be sent away to another prison; and therefore he thought fit to print this, for the satisfying his relations and friends of his innocence ... Printed in the year 1664.
